Another win for Cairngorm Brewery's 'Trade Winds'

The Cairngorm Brewery is celebrating again. Today, at the 20th Paisley Beer Festival, the Highland company based in Aviemore picked up the 'Beer of the Festival' with their multiple awards winning ale 'Trade Winds'.

Paisley Beer Festival, the biggest beer festival in Scotland, opened its doors yesterday. Over four days an expected 3,000 visitors will enjoy approximately 130 different cask conditioned beers from all over Scotland and the south of England.

Sales Manager, Merlin Sandbach commented, "Trade Winds has won many awards and continues to have that magic. This is very pleasing as we enter the summer season where its light, clean fresh taste appeals."
